RALEIGH, N. The cost of the statuary and other bronze work is $11,000. The cost of the completed monument will be cost of the completed monument will be #25,000. They have had to do this during two years of exceedingly hard times, and all things considered, have done remarkably well. Eight thousand dollars remains to be raised. The exact date of the unveiling of the monument is not yet settled, but will most probably be May 20th, just a year after the laying of the corper-stone.

ENGINEER HICKS NOT DEAD.

Last night Engineer Daniel Hicks, of the Seaboard-Afr Line, who was burt yesterday afternoon at Greystone, was brought here. Labor-Commissioner B. R. Lacy, of this city, a well-known ex-engineer, went after Hicks's body, the news being that Hicks was dead or dying, but to his great delight brought him back alive. Mr. Lacy says the physicians today say they believe Hicks will recover. He was crushed in the hips and abdomen. His engine left the rails at a frog, the latter having evidently broken. The engine did not turn over, but the tender and twelve cars did. It appears, strange to say, that from the position in which Hicks was found the tender must have rolled over him. His head is slightly cut. The wreck is one of the worst on record in this section. Hicks is a son of the veteran engineer. "Jake" Hicks, on this division of the Southern railway.

Populists Will Have a Conference This Week-Registered Distillery Seized.

RALEIGH, N. C., November 28 .- (Spe cial )-At Colon, on the Raleigh and Augusta Air-Line, forty miles from here, Engineer Alex. Clark was instantly killed. He was approaching the station, when he was approaching the station, when he saw the headlight of a locomotive, which he thought was on the main line. He reversed his engine and as it slowed up sprung from it, thinking there would be a collision. His head struck a stone and his neck was broken. His fireman jumped, but was not hurt. Clark was 2 years old, a native of Laurinburg, and leaves a wife and three children.

CONVICTS AND LABOR.

Superintendent Leasar, of the penitentiary, says that in a few days fifty more convicts will be sent from the prison to the farms on the Roanoke. It is decided that all the convicts on the farms will be kept there during the winter, and that not over 150 convicts are to remain in the punitentiary. Four convicts have arrived from New Hanover, two from Rowan, and one from Polk. One of the new convicts is a boy not quite 10 years of age, who gets four years for larveny. If the new Legislature has the nerve to provide for a reformatory for youthful criminals it will do a good deed.

The reception given by the Capital Club here Monday evening to Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Telfair was a particularly handsome and largely-attended affair. Mr. Telfair, Governor Carr's private secretary, has for a long time been the secretary of the club.

THE SPEAKERSHIP.

THE SPEAKERSHIP.

There is quite a lively little contest for the speakership of the lower house of the Legislature. There is a movement to make Ewari (Rrepublican) Speaker, while many Popullsts claim that one of their men will get the place.

There will be several attempts to induce the Legislature to create new counties, but the sentiment is against such action.

A BIG DAY FOR OXFORD. Tremendous Tobacco Break-Union Bank of

Granville Superior Court convened on Monday, Judge William A. Hoke, of Lincolnton, presiding. His charge to the grand jury was clear and strong, and it is the finiversal opinion here that he is one of the ablest of our judges. No important cases are on the criminal docket. The civil docket will be taken up this week. The most interesting suit is that in which the Union Bank of Richmond is plaintiff and the town commissioners of Oxford are defendants. This promises to be a case of considerable notoriety, as $20,000 is involved, and some interesting legal points will come up. These bonds were issued by the town of Oxford to the directors of the Oxford and Coast-Line railroad upon certain conditions precedent, which the defendants allege have not been compiled with, and they deny the validity of said bonds, and refuse payment of interest to the Union Bank of Richmond, purchasers of said bonds at 97 1-2 cents. The bank claims that it is a bona-fide purchaser of the bonds, which were negotiable. The outcome of the suit will be watched with interest. Not a spade of dirt has been thrown on the road since the issue of the bonds.

The warehouses were filled with tobacco, and to-day that portion is being soid which was not ceached yesterday. Prices continue good, while the quality is not so good as last week.

Messrs. Bowman Brothers, of Richmond, had a grand auction of horses and mules yesterday, and a large number were disposed of at prices ranging from $40 to $30. Most of them were very well sold.
